Important information about your rights

Questions about this statement

Call Member Services at 1-800-555-0143 (TTY 711), Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. local time. Have your member ID and the claim number shown on page 1 available. For questions about a bill you received from a provider, contact the provider's billing office.

Your right to appeal

If a claim was denied in whole or in part, or if you disagree with how a claim was processed, you or your authorized representative may request an internal appeal within 180 calendar days of receipt of this notice. Your request should be made in writing and include the member's name, member ID, claim number, and the reason you believe the determination should be changed, together with any supporting documentation. Upon request and free of charge, you are entitled to reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records, and other information relevant to your claim, including the identity of any medical or vocational experts consulted and any internal rule, guideline, protocol, or similar criterion relied upon in making the determination. A decision on a post-service appeal will be issued within 60 days of receipt of the request. In urgent situations you may request an expedited appeal.

External review

If, after exhausting the internal appeals process, the plan's decision involved medical judgment or a rescission of coverage, you may have the right to request an external review by an independent review organization. Requests for external review must be filed within four months after the date of receipt of a notice of final internal adverse benefit determination. In certain circumstances you may request external review at the same time as the internal appeal.

If your plan is subject to ERISA

You have the right to bring a civil action under section 502(a) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 following an adverse benefit determination on review. You and your plan may have other voluntary alternative dispute resolution options, such as mediation. One way to find out what may be available is to contact your local U.S. Department of Labor office and your state insurance regulatory agency.

Coordination of benefits

If you or a covered family member has coverage under another health plan, please contact Member Services so that benefits can be coordinated correctly. Failure to report other coverage may result in a delay or reprocessing of claims.

Fraud warning

Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files a statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects such person to criminal and civil penalties. To report suspected fraud, call 1-800-555-0177.

Nondiscrimination notice

Tidewater Health Plan complies with applicable federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.
